FROST won an iF DESIGN AWARD 2018

Denmark, January – FROST was a winner of this year's iF DESIGN AWARD, a world-renowned design prize. The winning product, Frost Pedal Bin, won in the Product discipline, in the Household/Tableware category. Each year, the world's oldest independent design organization, Hannover-based iF International Forum Design GmbH, organizes the iF DESIGN AWARD.

Frost Pedal bin won over the 63-member jury, made up of independent experts from all over the world, with its minimalistic design, high quality materials and six unique lid finishes. The competition was intense: over 6,400 entries were submitted from 54 countries in hopes of receiving the seal of quality.

About FROST

FROST offers complete product series with endless combination possibilities. The products encapsulate the spirit of our time and blends perfectly into any contemporary interior. Aesthetics, technical details and timeless design are key elements.

FROST has a close cooperation with talented architects who have managed to create a variety of quality products that provide new possibilities for interior design in all types of projects.

Based on the Danish design culture, the company provides wardrobe, entrance and bathroom accessories, in addition of Care and Living products for private homes, hotels, offices, business facilities as well as restaurants, cafes and public buildings.

It was the passion for interior design and the Danish design traditions that formed the basis for the establishment of FROST in 2002, and that is what keeps the company running every day. FROST is known for contemporary designs as well as high-quality materials and service. Go to www.frost.dk for more inspiration.
